3 "SECTION 1b. 186.113 (15) (a) of the statutes is amended to read:

4 186.113 (15) (a) Directly or indirectly, acquire, place and operate, or participate
5 in the acquisition, placement and operation of, at locations other than its offices, 6 remote terminals, in accordance with rules established by the commissioner. The 7 rules of the commissioner shall provide that any remote terminal shall be available 8 for use, on a nondiscriminatory basis, by any state or federal credit union which has 9 its principal place of business in this state, by any other credit union obtaining the 10 consent of a state or federal credit union which has its principal place of business in 11 this state and is using the terminal and by all members designated by a credit union 12 using the terminal. This subsection does not authorize a credit union which has its 13 principal place of business outside the state to conduct business as a credit union in 14 this state. The remote terminals also shall be available for use, on a 15 nondiscriminatory basis, by any state or national bank, state or federal savings bank 16 or state or federal savings and loan association, whose home office is located in this

1 state, if the bank, savings bank or savings and loan association requests to share its 2 use, subject to the joint rules established under s. 221.04 (1) (k). The rules of the 3 commissioner shall ~~prohibit~~ include provisions governing any advertising with 4 regard to a shared remote terminal which suggests or implies exclusive ownership 5 or control of the shared terminal by any credit union or group of credit unions 6 operating or participating in the operation of the terminal. The commissioner by 7 order may authorize the installation and operation of a remote terminal in a mobile 8 facility, after notice and hearing upon the proposed service stops of the mobile facility.

9 SECTION 1f. 186.113 (15) (a) of the statutes, as affected by 1995 Wisconsin Acts 10 27 and (this act), is repealed and recreated to read:

11 186.113 (15) (a) Directly or indirectly, acquire, place and operate, or participate
12 in the acquisition, placement and operation of, at locations other than its offices, 13 remote terminals, in accordance with rules established by the office of credit unions.
14 The rules shall provide that any remote terminal shall be available for use, on a 15 nondiscriminatory basis, by any state or federal credit union which has its principal 16 place of business in this state, by any other credit union obtaining the consent of a 17 state or federal credit union which has its principal place of business in this state and 18 is using the terminal and by all members designated by a credit union using the 19 terminal. This subsection does not authorize a credit union which has its principal 20 place of business outside the state to conduct business as a credit union in this state.
21 The remote terminals also shall be available for use, on a nondiscriminatory basis, 22 by any state or national bank, state or federal savings bank or state or federal savings 23 and loan association, whose home office is located in this state, if the bank, savings 24 bank or savings and loan association requests to share its use, subject to the joint 25 rules established under s. 221.04 (1) (k). The rules of the office of credit unions shall

1 include provisions governing any advertising with regard to a shared remote 2 terminal which suggests or implies exclusive ownership or control of the shared 3 terminal by any credit union or group of credit unions operating or participating in 4 the operation of the terminal. The office of credit unions by order may authorize the 5 installation and operation of a remote terminal in a mobile facility, after notice and 6 hearing upon the proposed service stops of the mobile facility.

7 SECTION 1k. 214.04 (21) (b) of the statutes is amended to read:

8 214.04 (21) (b) The rules of the commissioner shall provide that any remote 9 service unit shall be available for use, on a nondiscriminatory basis, by any state or 10 federal savings bank which has its principal place of business in this state, by any 11 other state or federal savings bank obtaining the consent of a state or federal savings 12 bank that has its principal place of business in this state and is using the terminal 13 and by all customers designated by a savings bank using the unit. This paragraph 14 does not authorize a savings bank which has its principal place of business outside 15 this state to conduct business as a savings bank in this state. A remote service unit 16 shall be available for use, on a nondiscriminatory basis, by any credit union, state 17 or national bank or state or federal savings and loan association, whose home office 18 is located in this state, if the credit union, bank or savings and loan association 19 requests to share its use, subject to joint rules established by the commissioner of 20 banking, the commissioner of credit unions and the commissioner. The rules of the 21 commissioner and the joint rules shall ~~each prohibit~~ include provisions governing 22 any advertising with regard to a shared remote service unit which suggests or 23 implies exclusive ownership or control of the shared unit by any savings bank or 24 group of savings banks operating or participating in the operation of the unit. The 25 commissioner by order may authorize the installation and operation of a remote

1 service unit in a mobile facility, after notice and hearing upon the proposed service 2 stops of the mobile facility.

3 SECTION 1p. 214.04 (21) (b) of the statutes, as affected by 1995 Wisconsin Acts
4 27 and (this act), is repealed and recreated to read:

5 214.04 (21) (b) The rules of the division shall provide that any remote service 6 unit shall be available for use, on a nondiscriminatory basis, by any state or federal 7 savings bank which has its principal place of business in this state, by any other state 8 or federal savings bank obtaining the consent of a state or federal savings bank that 9 has its principal place of business in this state and is using the terminal and by all 10 customers designated by a savings bank using the unit. This paragraph does not 11 authorize a savings bank which has its principal place of business outside this state 12 to conduct business as a savings bank in this state. A remote service unit shall be 13 available for use, on a nondiscriminatory basis, by any credit union, state or national 14 bank or state or federal savings and loan association, whose home office is located 15 in this state, if the credit union, bank or savings and loan association requests to 16 share its use, subject to joint rules established by the division of banking, the office 17 of credit unions and the division. The rules of the division and the joint rules shall 18 include provisions governing any advertising with regard to a shared remote service 19 unit which suggests or implies exclusive ownership or control of the shared unit by 20 any savings bank or group of savings banks operating or participating in the 21 operation of the unit. The division by order may authorize the installation and 22 operation of a remote service unit in a mobile facility, after notice and hearing upon 23 the proposed service stops of the mobile facility.

24 SECTION 1s. 215.13 (46) (a) 1. of the statutes is amended to read:

1 215.13 (46) (a) 1. Directly or indirectly, acquire, place and operate, or 2 participate in the acquisition, placement and operation of, at locations other than its 3 home or branch offices, remote service units, in accordance with rules established by 4 the commissioner. Remote service units established in accordance with such rules 5 are not subject to sub. (36), (39), (40) or (47) or s. 215.03 (8). The rules of the 6 commissioner shall provide that any such remote service unit shall be available for 7 use, on a nondiscriminatory basis, by any state or federal savings and loan 8 association which has its principal place of business in this state, by any other 9 savings and loan association obtaining the consent of a state or federal savings and 10 loan association which has its principal place of business in this state and is using 11 the terminal and by all customers designated by a savings and loan association using 12 the unit. This paragraph does not authorize a savings and loan association which 13 has its principal place of business outside this state to conduct business as a savings
14 and loan association in this state. The remote service units also shall be available 15 for use, on a nondiscriminatory basis, by any credit union, state or national bank or 16 state or federal savings bank, whose home office is located in this state, if the credit 17 union, bank or savings bank requests to share its use, subject to the joint rules 18 established under s. 221.04 (1) (k). The rules of the commissioner shall ~~prohibit~~
19 include provisions governing any advertising with regard to a shared remote service
20 unit which suggests or implies exclusive ownership or control of the shared unit by 21 any savings and loan association or group of savings and loan associations operating 22 or participating in the operation of the unit. The commissioner by order may 23 authorize the installation and operation of a remote service unit in a mobile facility, 24 after notice and hearing upon the proposed service stops of the mobile facility.

1 SECTION 1w. 215.13 (46) (a) 1. of the statutes, as affected by 1995 Wisconsin
2 Acts 27 and (this act), is repealed and recreated to read:

3 215.13 (46) (a) 1. Directly or indirectly, acquire, place and operate, or 4 participate in the acquisition, placement and operation of, at locations other than its 5 home or branch offices, remote service units, in accordance with rules established by 6 the division. Remote service units established in accordance with such rules are not 7 subject to sub. (36), (39), (40) or (47) or s. 215.03 (8). The rules of the division shall 8 provide that any such remote service unit shall be available for use, on a 9 nondiscriminatory basis, by any state or federal savings and loan association which 10 has its principal place of business in this state, by any other savings and loan 11 association obtaining the consent of a state or federal savings and loan association 12 which has its principal place of business in this state and is using the terminal and 13 by all customers designated by a savings and loan association using the unit. This 14 paragraph does not authorize a savings and loan association which has its principal 15 place of business outside this state to conduct business as a savings and loan 16 association in this state. The remote service units also shall be available for use, on 17 a nondiscriminatory basis, by any credit union, state or national bank or state or 18 federal savings bank, whose home office is located in this state, if the credit union, 19 bank or savings bank requests to share its use, subject to the joint rules established 20 under s. 221.04 (1) (k). The rules of the division shall include provisions governing 21 any advertising with regard to a shared remote service unit which suggests or 22 implies exclusive ownership or control of the shared unit by any savings and loan 23 association or group of savings and loan associations operating or participating in 24 the operation of the unit. The division by order may authorize the installation and

1 operation of a remote service unit in a mobile facility, after notice and hearing upon 2 the proposed service stops of the mobile facility.
